About Water Polo Australia

Water Polo offers the opportunity for participants aged from six years old to masters to enjoy one of Australia's Olympic team sports. Water Polo Australia (WPA) is the national governing body for the sport of water polo in Australia. WPA is recognised by Sport Australia, the Australian Institute of Sport (AIS), and the Australian Olympic Committee (AOC) and FINA (international governing body) through Swimming Australia Ltd.

WPA is a not-for-profit sporting organisation and as the governing body, WPA undertakes numerous tasks and projects across five strategic elements to create success today, to inspire the stars of tomorrow and to encourage members to be part of a team for life.

With a proud record on the international stage, Australian teams compete around the world including at the Olympic Games, FINA World Championships, FINA World League, FINA World Cup and other tournaments.

Organisation Values of Water Polo in Australia:

- We have FUN: we love our sport and enjoy the camaraderie of our community
- We are continually in PURSUIT of EXCELLENCE: we inspire people to be their best and do their best
- We are INCLUSIVE: we are a welcoming community for everyone
- We embrace TEAMWORK: we collaborate and act with a unity of purpose in the best interest of the sport
- We act with RESPECT: we play fair, ensuring what we do is ethical, transparent, and honest

National Performance Director

Reporting to the CEO, the National Performance Director is a member of the WPA Senior Management Team and as such has a leadership role in the delivery of the overall National Strategic Framework, and WPA Operation Plans. Specifically, this role is responsible for the delivery of the National Performance Framework (NPF), the Purpose and Objectives of which are described below.

NPF Purpose:

- Identify, develop and optimise Australia’s best talent to excel on the international stage, in a manner that optimises the involvement of key stakeholders and inspires future generations to follow.

NPF Objectives:

- Develop and refine the ‘Australian Way’ which describes the attitude, culture and style of play, that affords Australian teams a competitive advantage against the leading international teams and to ensure it is embedded in programs across Australia.
- Develop and continually refine the understanding of the characteristics of successful performers and utilise this information to inform the talent identification and development processes for players, coaches and referees at all levels.
- Implement a thorough, affordable, collaborative National Age Group Program to optimise the development of identified players, coaches and referees with the attributes to produce sustainable and successful international performances.
- Effectively integrate all elements of the national performance system to ensure the national senior teams are set up for success.

To be successful in this role you will need to be a dynamic and engaging leader with an ability to swiftly build relationships and credibility with international level athletes, coaches, staff and a variety of other stakeholders. A proven business acumen including budgeting, strategic and operational planning is required.

The ideal candidate is tertiary qualified with significant senior management or leadership experience in high performance, elite or professional sport. Knowledge of both international and Australian sport structures and dynamics is required, as is an understanding of athlete development and performance pathways and the drivers to succeed in an elite team sport.

This role presents a unique opportunity to make a positive impact on an Australian Olympic high performance program both strategically and operationally.
